Please don't tell me you believe in fundamentalists.

It seems that there is an imposter using my copyrighted photo and as close to my name as you can get?

Halloween on the forums makes everything confusing.

I can't believe no one voted for "I am my own God".

i really figured that would be mat's thing. i made that category just for him. and maybe tatuaje.

I think I held a position similar to that one once. There is actually Biblical support for it, in the Jesus books.

Of course, it could just be Masonic/Illuminati lies. The Earth, I have heard, Will Shake.

i notice you finally voted for that position, though. almost as if my power of persuasion was god-like.
